The Peace Corps Let Girls Learn Fund

Let Girls Learn Fund Terms & Conditions

Make a donation to the Let Girls Learn Fund by visiting peacecorps.gov/donate. Our vision is to secure a total of $10.5 million to The Let Girls Learn Fund over the next five years. The Peace Corps will use all gifts made to the Let Girls Learn Fund to support girls' education and empowerment.

Everyone is eligible to give. This is a five year journey with the American public as we collectively aim to raise awareness of this issue and elevate this cause in the philanthropic community – from mothers and fathers, to faith-based groups to corporations and others – each can play a role to help us raise much needed funds.

Why give to the Peace Corps? 100% of your tax deductible gift will fund gender-related projects through the Peace Corps Partnership Program, as well as support community training to help address the challenges girls face in their communities. From launching science camps for girls to delivering local teacher trainings, Let Girls Learn activities aim to improve education quality, expand education access, and empower positive behavior change. These community-based projects are funded entirely with donations from non-Federal entities. Each grant includes a minimum 25% contribution from the local community which demonstrates the commitment of local stakeholders and better ensures sustainability of these projects. Your gift will empower community-implemented solutions, and will continue beyond the service years of our Peace Corps Volunteers. Your tax deductible contribution will reach those in need and make a positive impact.

The Peace Corps is a United States Government agency and provides tax deductibility of gifts to the agency for Federal income tax purposes under section 170(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. You will receive a receipt from the Peace Corps in acknowledgement of your gift to the agency. Your contribution may be tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. Please consult your tax advisor to understand your specific circumstances. No goods or services will be provided in exchange for your donation. The Peace Corps reserves the right to cancel, suspend or modify any fundraising campaigns associated with the Let Girls Learn Fund. Any unused restricted funds will be directed to support the Peace Corps mission and initiatives.
