Description:

The Peace Corps is planning to use other than full and open competition to request university/college recruitment services, period of performance: 31 Aug 2011 – 30 Aug 2012. Accordingly, the Peace Corps intends to award a contract to Cornell University for the purpose of increasing awareness of Peace Corps and recruiting prospective Peace Corps Volunteers through campus and recruiting services. The proposed contract action is for services for which the Government intends to solicit and negotiate with only the above designated source under the authority of FAR 6.302-1. This notice of intent is NOT a request for competitive proposals. However, all responsible sources may submit a proposal which may be considered by the Government. A determination by the Government not to compete this proposed contract based upon responses to this notice is solely within the discretion of the Government. Information received may be considered solely for the purpose of determining whether to conduct a competitive procurement.

Place of Contract Performance: Cornell University

Set-aside Status: Not Set Aside
