

PEACE CORPS 2014 FRANKLIN H. WILLIAMS NOMINATION FORM

Peace Corps' Office of Diversity and National Outreach is issuing a call for nominations for the 2012 Franklin H. Williams Award. Peace Corps is proud to recognize Ambassador Franklin H. Williams and his remarkable legacy. The first Franklin H. Williams award ceremony was held in 1999, and to date 108 individuals have received the award.

The Franklin H. Williams Award recognizes ethnically diverse returned Peace Corps Volunteers who exemplify a commitment to community service and Peace Corps' Third Goal of promoting a better understanding of other peoples on the part of Americans.

Franklin H. Williams was an early architect of the Peace Corps. He worked at the agency from its inception in 1961 to 1963 and helped Sargent Shriver—the first Peace Corps Director—promote the agency and its programs to the world. Ambassador Williams' exceptional public service career included positions as the Peace Corps Regional Director for Africa, the U.S. representative to the United Nations Economic and Social Council, and the U.S. Ambassador to Ghana.

The Franklin H. Williams Award is scheduled for early October 2014 in Washington, DC at Shriver Hall in Peace Corps Headquarters.

Nomination Criteria:

Diverse Returned Peace Corps Volunteers who have demonstrated a commitment to community service, made efforts to generate awareness about the Peace Corps, provided assistance to Peace Corps' regional recruiting office staff, and/or worked to promote Peace Corps' Third Goal are ideal candidates for nomination.

To nominate someone for the Franklin H. Williams Award, please complete this form along with a photo (optional) and submit it to diversity@peacecorps.gov by Monday, August 25, 2014. Nominations may also be mailed to the following address:
