1.0 Authority

In accordance with the Peace Corps Act (22 U.S.C. 2500 et. seq.) and the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021, Section 7015:
(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the Director of the Peace Corps may not open, close, significantly reduce, or suspend a domestic or overseas office or country program or reopen a mission or a Post unless the Director has notified and consulted with the appropriate congressional committees at least 15 days in advance.

(2) With the exception of the re-opening of a mission or a Post, the Director of the Peace Corps may waive the application of paragraph (1) for a period of not more than 5 days after an action described in such paragraph if the Director determines such action is necessary to ameliorate a substantial security risk to Peace Corps Volunteers or other Peace Corps personnel.

(3) For the purposes of this subsection, the term ‘‘appropriate congressional committees’’ means —

(a) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives; and

(b) the Committee on Foreign Relations and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate.

(4) Any notification of or determination that consultation with appropriate congressional committees is required in accordance with this subsection 2.0 shall be referred to the Office of Congressional Relations (OCR) and the Office of the General Counsel (OGC). OGC shall coordinate with OCR and provide guidance and clearance prior to congressional notification or consultation by the agency.

2.0 Purpose

This Manual Section provides Peace Corps policy for opening or reopening a Peace Corps Post in a country. Procedural guides for opening or re-opening a Post are set out in the Peace Corps New Country Assessment Guide (Attachment A) and New Country Entry Guide (Attachment B).

3.0 Policy

In keeping with its founding principles, the Peace Corps works only in those countries where it is invited by the host government to serve. An invitation from the host government to the Peace Corps to open or re-open a Peace Corps Post evidences this interest of the host country, and serves as the foundation of all actions to be taken by the agency to explore a possible Peace Corps program in that country. Generally, the Peace Corps requests that a formal invitation from the host government be sent to the Director of the Peace Corps as a serious expression of interest and as the basis for further steps in the process of opening a potential Peace Corps Post. Once an official invitation has been received by the Director, the Director may send an assessment team to the country to conduct a New Country Assessment (NCA) to study the feasibility of opening or re-opening a Post (see definitions in subsection 4.0).

The decision to proceed with a NCA is further informed by the Peace Corps annual Country Portfolio Review (CPR), defined below in 4.0(b). The CPR process for deciding whether or not to recommend a NCA consists of presenting external, and sometimes internal data if the country is a re-entry, which helps to make the decision concerning the appropriateness of an assessment. This data typically concerns population sizes, crime rates, economic need and other information available in published external sources.

4.0 Definitions

(a) Post: The principal office and any sub-offices of the Peace Corps in any host country. In some instances, the principal office and sub-offices may encompass Peace Corps operations in more than one host country.

(b) Country Portfolio Review (CPR): A transparent and replicable process for informing decisions related to the Peace Corps’ portfolio of countries and Volunteer levels in each country. Six priority areas are evaluated in the CPR process: (1) safety and security, (2) medical care of Volunteers, (3) host country need and strategic interest, (4) host country commitment and engagement, (5) programmatic impact, and (6) Post management and costs. (See Attachment B of IPS 4-21 Peace Corps Overseas Post Operations during COVID-19 Response and Recovery for an overview of the CPR process.)

(c) Open: The initial establishment of a Peace Corps Post in a host country, formalized through a Country Agreement.

(d) Re-open: The re-establishment of a Post that had previously been closed, with at least one U.S. Direct Hire assigned to the Post (see IPS 4-21 Peace Corps Overseas Post Operations during COVID-19 Response and Recovery).

5.0 Responsibilities

5.1 The Director

The Director is responsible for:

(a) Authorizing the initiation of discussions with the Department of State and other relevant departments and agencies, as well as the host country government, regarding possible operations of the Peace Corps in a particular country;

(b) Directing senior staff to conduct comprehensive assessments of relevant indicators and considerations necessary to determine the feasibility of operating a Peace Corps Post in the country, including, but not limited to, the country’s need and support for Peace Corps operations; social and political stability, including the impact of adverse events in the country’s history such as conflict and major natural disasters; safety and security and health concerns; as well as programming, administrative and financial aspects of operations;

(c) Making final decisions on whether, and under what conditions, to proceed with opening a Post;
(d) Maintaining adequate documentation of key decisions and recommendations related to opening or re-opening any overseas office or country program; and

(e) If the decision is made to open a Post, selecting the Country Director.

5.2 Office of the General Counsel
