POSITION SUMMARY

This is a full-time, short-term contract position which requires approximately 20 weeks of living and working at the central training site in Don Chedi, Suphanburi Province. Transportation and lodging are provided.

The Homestay Coordinator (HC) plans, promotes, and implements the homestay program, an integral component of Pre-Service Training (PST) for American Peace Corps Volunteers. The HC will help develop the PST training site; recruit, interview, document, select and train potential Thai host families; ensure that host family housing meets Peace Corps safety and security standards; and collaborate with staff to match trainees and host families with whom they will live for approximately 10 weeks. During PST, the HC conducts regular visits to host families and trainees to assist with community integration. The HC compiles, maintains, and submits all documentation to Peace Corps staff to be entered into VIDA, Peace Corps' online database of volunteer information.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include, but are not limited to the following:

Program Planning, Promotion, and Implementation

- Works with Training Manager (TM), Language and Culture Coordinator (LCC) and other staff to develop a plan for host family placement in communities surrounding the central training hub in Don Chedi.
- Coordinates with the TM and TA to conduct outreach to mayors, school directors, and other key community members to identify potential host families.
- Distributes PST Home Stay Applications, collects and analyzes applicant information, and generates a short list of potential host families.
- Conducts host family interviews and completes the family survey and housing checklist, to comply with Peace Corps policies.
- Identifies and documents needed follow-up visits and works with selected host families to ensure all safety & security deficiencies are resolved prior to trainee arrival.
- Orients families to Peace Corps' health and safety and security policies and procedures.

- Reviews trainee demographics and pre-arrival surveys and makes recommendations for matching trainees and host families based on needs, requirements, and preferences.

Volunteer & Host Family Support

- Plans, develops and implements a half-day host family orientation conference.
- Meets with host families on regular basis to troubleshoot issues and assist with integration. May require some work on evenings and weekends.
- Keeps TM & LCC informed with daily verbal progress reports and weekly written reports.

Administration & Reporting

- Attends planning meetings and activities, including the Training of Trainers (TOT) workshop, and PST staff meetings.
- Completes all mandatory online training.
- Coordinates with the Regional Coordinators to document all trainee and host family information in VIDA.
- Updates trainee whereabouts during PST
- Contributes summary of the home stay program to the training assistant to be included in the final PST report.
- other related duties as assigned.

Safety and Security

Evaluates home stay sites to ensure conformity to established standards for safety and security of Trainees. Ensures host families and local officials are willing and able to provide appropriate support to Trainees. Coordinates orientation for host families, including safety and security matters related to Trainees. Assists Training Manager and DPT in developing safety and security systems for pre-service training and supports safety and security training objectives, including reinforcing Trainee roles and responsibilities related to personal safety and security. Immediately communicates Volunteer safety and security concerns and issues to the Safety and Security Manager (SSM) and Training Manager. Knowledgeable and supportive of Peace Corps safety and security policies and procedures, including the timely reporting of suspicious incidents, persons or articles.

Per MS 270, all members of the Peace Corps staff must be familiar with the Emergency Action Plan and their responsibilities in the event of an emergency.
